24-CV-3464

PLAINTIFFS AMENDED COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Petitioner Pshatoia LaRose, and states the following:

Plaintiff alleges that Respondent, Sean Combs through the entities of Combs Enterprise and Combs Global, as well as individually, committed the acts of violating the intellectual property rights of Plaintiff's phone contents and conversations, which were re-used in publications, as well as the invasion of privacy and harassment. All Defendants Included in the Initial Complaint are included in this complaint. The Respondent caused harm and loss to Plaintiff both directly and indirectly through third party associations, horoscope script writings, and Respondent's brand. As a result of Respondent's actions, Petitioner has experienced severe financial loss and pain and suffering which has resulted in irreparable harm and loss to Petitioner. Plaintiff seeks damages of $521 million.

Defendant has also violated the Lanham Act, which provides that "Any person who, on or in connection with any goods or services, or any container for goods, uses in commerce any word, term, name, symbol, or device, or any combination thereof, or any false designation of origin, false or misleading description of fact, or false or misleading representation of fact, which—(A) is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association of such person with another person, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of his or her goods, services, or commercial activities by another person." 15 U.S. C. § 1125(a)(1). In addition, Defendant violated Trade Secrets Act of 2016 and continuous Stalking and Invasion of Privacy of unauthorized reuse of Plaintiff's Phone Contents, Images and Personal Property and is thus liable under the Lanham Act. Defendant has reused Plaintiff, Pshatoia LaRose contents for inspiration for both Business and Personal use ranging from Creating Products, Music Graphics, Social Media Post but not limited to only these accusations that shall result in Injunctions on these Products until Damages are awarded to Plaintiff.

Defendant has already made a settlement to another party, Cassandra Ventura, for similar claims to Plaintiff's, and there are other cases ongoing involving Defendant. Defendant has been in the news frequently regarding similar cases and allegations. Four women, including Ms. Ventura, have filed against Defendant for abuse and sexual assault, filing in the New York Superior Court. Combs repetitive Domestic Violence actions under further Review and Scrutiny in regards to this Case and several others shall proceed with Civil Justice by Jury Trial as well as Criminal Charges. Plaintiff, Pshatoia LaRose is stalked Daily prior to Suit and after Suit has been filed regarding Claims stated in Complaint.

Petitioner respectfully asks this Court for damages owing from Defendant's conduct be held in The United States District Court, Southern District of New York via Jury Trial, as well as for an order for Respondent to disclose all horoscope websites that he operates or is associated with, as well as for any other relief that this Court may deem proper. After further review of Appendix, Dismissal of this Case would be an injustice to the Judicial System and would be deemed unfair, unreasonable and Potentially unethical to allow continuous Stalking, Violation of Privacy, Lanham Act and Trade Secrets of 2016 by Repetitive Domestic Violence Offender, Sean Combs who shall be held accountable in the Court of Law.

Respectfully submitted,

Pshatoia LaRose

I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. ## Scorpio Horoscope for Tomorrow

Expressing yourself and sharing ideas can be tough as thoughtful Mercury collides with pessimistic Saturn in your house of self-expression. Not trusting your intelligence and originality can lead to a creative block. At the same time, you might feel compelled to convince someone that your ideas are on point.

Everyone has their off days. Don't push it if you're not feeling inspired. Tomorrow is another day. With the sun in your backstage realm, your vibe is pretty laid back. As the moon collides with sociable Venus, you may question whether you have the energy for a date or get-together. Doing something lowkey may be enjoyable. ## Today's Horoscope Overview

Overview

Money

Horoscope for October 14th 2023

Take time to be alone if you are feeling self-destructive. Be diplomatic and exercise restraint in your relationships. This is a time to look inward, to be creative and meditative. If you have endured a loss, perhaps of a grandparent or grandparent figure, look to friends and loved ones for support and hope. You are easily influenced by others today. Try not to take matters too seriously. Opt for a change in appearance and pursue rewarding work. Be creative and upbeat. A bright outlook will improve your focus and health. The right attitude is vital and will make you feel in control today.

Welcome to the team!

Are you biting off more than you can chew? I see you're dear Scorpion in your efforts to impress someone, you might be so close to the goal, but more than you should be agreeing to. If you know that you don't really feel it's wise, then maybe you can put it off for a while. Maybe you can't even do it, you do, will you regret it later on for having done so? Or will you resent it for the choice you made? Think about it before you request or before you volunteer for something that might just be too much to take on right now.

Relax, O' warrior. There is nothing you need to know in the now or learn to get to another place. If there were a quick and easy way to cut soul ties, you'd be the first to pull out your celestial scissors. When it comes to removing toxic energy from your life, even the memory of an ex has to go.

The Moon entering Scorpio brings out the deep desire to seek truth. There may be a few things in the past you're holding on to that stop you from having the life you know you can live. Block the ex. Delete their number. It's time to move on.

Sex is one area of life where there are more unspoken rules than almost anything else except for death or money. You will have a most interesting time, in the light of this, when you go through your solar return in Scorpio. You have just been or on the way.

Scorpio Horoscope for Tomorrow

You tend to read too much into things as perceptive Pallas merges with the South Node in your mysterious twelfth house. When you connect the dots, they're unlikely to reveal the crimes and misdemeanors that you envision. Don't let paranoia drive you and everyone else crazy. Jumping to the wrong conclusions can be disastrous. Instead, redirect your attention toward verifiable facts. Likewise, a crippling fear may have no basis in reality. All signs indicate that it's in your head. Doing something you don't think you can do can annihilate your insecurity on the spot. What if we said you are more than the stories you've been told about yourself? What if we said you are infinite and so is the possibility of what you can co-create? This is your reminder to examine the old narratives. To examine the weight of other people's expectations. The dark moon is offering you the perfect opportunity to release the past, to do what you need to in order to be free. So, be free. Empty your mind of the dos and the don'ts, allow for fresh inspiration to come through. The entire Universe will conspire to bless you with what you need and what you want when you are in alignment with your truth.

The week ahead sees you booked, blessed and busy! You're pursuing your soul's calling.

You're dedicating yourself to that which brings you joy *and* enables you to bring more lightness and brightness into the big, bad world. There's no such thing as perfect.

However, this is as close to perfect as it gets, beautiful one. In the realm of romance, you're likely to experience a va-va-voom connection with somebody who's been in your orbit for a while now. Is there more to this connection than just chemistry, though? To avoid misunderstandings later, be clear about your thoughts and feelings from the start.

This is the week to be booked, blessed and busy, Virgo! This is the week to show up as the star of every show as you inspire your fellow travellers to follow their bliss. Something tells us you are ready to co-create magic with those you feel that creative chemistry with. As such, this [REDACTED] has woken the good samaritan within. To think of ways in which you can support and uplift the collective. The secret to living a fulfilled life: placing service at the front and centre of everything you create and offer.

The message of a tough experience may have been to keep going, to do something while the results of your inspection may have been questioned in the future. Let's say you have taken on too much on your own and have envisioned things unfolding in a certain way and they may have turned out something else, but that doesn't matter now. Could haves, would haves, should haves don't make life. The Now does. So try asking yourself - what can you do now to feel like I'm walking my talk and leave the rest to your angels and guides.
